

Anu Subramanian is a licensed speech language pathologist focused on developing programs targeted at early childhood. After completing her Bachelors and Masters in India, Anu obtained a Ph.D. in Speech and Hearing Science at the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign, IL. She currently works as a Visiting Clinical Associate Professor at the Wendell Johnson Speech and Hearing Clinic in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders at the University of Iowa.

Anu represents yet again a synchronous event in the life of CARTHA. Soon after Anu arrived in Iowa City from West Lafayette, IN, she happened to run into the CARTHA Founder during the 2015 Iowa City Jazz Festival. During their weekly walks, Anu expressed curiosity about CARTHA's question: "What are your aspirations for humanity?" As a result, Anu got introduced to several of CARTHA's Collaborative Doers locally and began to provide counsel to the CARTHA Founder on program partnerships with nonprofits she was working with (e.g., Neighborhood Centers of Johnson County).

Anu has previously served on boards of nonprofits addressing the needs of domestic abuse victims and their children. Anu is excited at the opportunity to become a long-time supporter of CARTHA. Anu joined CARTHA's Board of Directors on September 1, 2016, a special anniversary day when CARTHA turned 10 years old.
